TACTICAL ASSAULT HEADSET [TACK-1]

COMMUNICATIONS > SITUATIONAL AWARENESS > DURABILITY: TACK 1

Another TCI headset designed for the future that meets MIL-STD-810 standards today! - From the Tactical Assault Communication Headset Series comes the TACK-1 Tactical Headset.

The integrated design and performance characteristics make this headset an exceptional choice for teams seeking superb performance in a light-weight tactical headset. Suitable for tactical teams, defense and security forces, as well as Sniper and Bike Patrol applications... TACK-1 tactical headsets have been a popular choice for several years by operators seeking a durable headset that is suitable for demanding applications.

The TACK-1 provides exceptional performance and stability without unnecessary weight or mass. It features the popular TCI Tactical Push-To-Talk, Noise-Canceling/Waterproof Microphone, radio connection for your specified radio model, a system storage bag and a progressive headset design.

Operators receive communications using the pivoting left speaker of the headset delivering crisp, clear communications, exceptional intelligibility and uncompromised situational awareness. TCI can manufacture your headset for virtually any radio model as well.

TACK-1 Tactical Headsets can be worn in conjunction with virtually any tactical helmet, bicycle helmet, hat, cap, balaclava, or gas mask for long periods comfortably. The headset suspension consists of a high-quality steel frame that is able to be custom configured and adjusted to fit virtually any operator.
